About this Release

ABOUT THIS RELEASE

An expanded confidentialised unit record file (Exp. CURF) containing data from the Survey of Income and Housing Costs to enable users to manipulate the data, produce tabulations and undertake statistical analyses to their individual specifications. The data are confidentialised, contain no names and addresses or any other information that might uniquely identify an individual, have less detail than was collected, have a small number of unusual records removed, and the details changed for some items of data to protect confidentiality. The file is distributed on CD-ROM and through the Remote Access Data Laboratory (RADL), together with restrictions placed on the user, supported by a legal undertaking signed by each user and their organisation, on how the data are to be used.

Formerly: Survey of Income and Housing: Expanded Confidentialised Unit Record File (RADL)
